Call to Worship Psalm 27:1

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

Invocation: Almighty God, O heavenly Father, whose presence is an eternal peace, whose dwelling is an everlasting glory, Lord who rules over earth and heaven, we bow before you in this place, confessing with our hymns and prayers the name of Christ, whom we acknowledge as Lord indeed. Grant to us your blessing and your presence, your Word and your peace, that our worship be that worship which is in Spirit and in truth. Through Jesus Christ our Savior, whom with you, O Father, and the Holy Spirit we always worship and adore. One God forever and ever. Amen

Old Testament Psalm 31:1-8

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me! <sup>2</sup> Incline your ear to me; rescue me speedily! Be a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me! <sup>3</sup> For you are my rock and my fortress; and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me; <sup>4</sup> you take me out of the net they have hidden for me, for you are my refuge. <sup>5</sup> Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God. <sup>6</sup> I hate those who pay regard to worthless idols, but I trust in the Lord. <sup>7</sup> I will rejoice and be glad in your steadfast love, because you have seen my affliction; you have known the distress of my soul, <sup>8</sup> and you have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy; you have set my feet in a broad place.

Adoration: Lord, we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but let your Spirit help us in our weakness and intercede for us. O pour upon us a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, the Spirit of adoption teaching us to cry, "Abba, Father"; that we may find in our hearts to pray this prayer: Send out your light and your truth; let them lead us, let them bring us to your holy hill and to your dwelling; to God, our exceeding joy. O Lord, open our lips, and our mouths will declare your praise. This is what you, O LORD, have said: that you will be sanctified among those who are near you, and before all the people you will be glorified. We therefore worship before you, O Lord, that we may glorify your name; and therefore we call upon you, that you may deliver us, and we may glorify you. For from you and through you and to you are all things

Confession: O the riches of the patience and forbearance of God! How patient he is toward us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. You have not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us according to our iniquities, but you wait to be gracious to us. Sentence against our evil deeds has not been executed speedily, but you have given us time to repent and make our peace with you, and call even faithless sons to return to you, and have promised to heal our faithlessness; and therefore, behold, we come to you, for you are the LORD our God. Surely the patience of our Lord is counted as salvation; and if the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not now have shown us such things as these. And O that this kindness of God might lead us to repentance! For though we have broken faith with our God, yet now there is hope for us in Israel in spite of this. You have said it and have confirmed it with an oath, that you have no pleasure in the death of sinners, but rather desire that we should turn and live. Therefore will we rend our hearts, and not our garments, and return to the LORD our God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him.

Petition: Lord, qualify us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light; let God himself prepare us for this very thing, and give us the Spirit as a guarantee in our hearts. O that we may know that our citizenship is in heaven, and that from there, with comfort, we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus, who shall transform our lowly bodies to be like his glorious body. O that we may set our minds on things that are above, and that our life may be hidden with Christ in God; that when Christ, who is our life, shall appear, we also may appear with him in glory; that when he shall appear, we may be like him, may see him as he is, may behold his face in righteousness, and when we awake, may be satisfied with his likeness. When we fail, let us be received into the eternal dwellings, in the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God; that we may always be together with the Lord, to see as we are seen and know as we have been fully known; and, in the meantime, help us to encourage ourselves and one another with these words. And hoping in Christ, may we purify ourselves as he is pure. And now, may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort our hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

Thanks: You have not quenched the smoldering wick, nor broken the bruised reed, nor despised the day of small things; but having had the help of God, we continue up to this time. On the day we called, you answered us; and our strength of soul you increased. We have been continually with you, you have held our right hand, when our feet had almost stumbled and our steps had nearly slipped. We have reason never to forget your precepts, for by them you have given us life; and if your law had not been our delight, we would have perished in our affliction many a time; for your statutes have been our songs in the house of our sojourning. If the Lord had not been our help, our souls would soon have lived in the land of silence: But when we thought, "Our foot slips," your steadfast love, O LORD, held us up; and when the cares of our hearts are many, your consolations cheer our souls

Intercession: Lord, give to those who are young to remember their Creator in the days of their youth; that thereby they may be kept from the vanity which childhood and youth are subject to, and may be restrained from walking in the way of their heart and in the sight of their eyes, by considering that for all these things God will bring them into judgment. Lord, make young people self-controlled; and let the word of God abide in them, that they may be strong and may overcome the evil one. From the womb of the morning let Christ have the dew of your youth; and let him be formed in the hearts of those who are young. Keep those who are setting out in the world from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire; and give to those who have been well-educated, to hold fast the pattern of sound words, and to continue in what they have learned. There are some who are old disciples of Jesus Christ; Lord, give them still to bear fruit in old age, to declare that the LORD is upright, that he is their Rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him. Now the evil days have come and the years of which they say, "I have no pleasure in them"; let your consolations cheer their souls. You have said, "Even to your old age I am he, and to gray hairs I will carry you." You have made them, Lord; we beg you, bear, yes, do carry and save them. Those whom you have taught from their youth up and to whom you still proclaim your wondrous deeds, now, also, when they are old and gray headed, forsake them not; cast them not off in the time of old age; forsake them not when their strength is spent. Let every gray head be a crown of glory to those who have it, being gained in a righteous life, and give them to know whom they have believed.

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

Assurance of Pardon: Deuteronomy 4:31

"For the Lord your God is a merciful God. He will not leave you or destroy you or forget the covenant with your fathers that he swore to them."

New Testament Reading: Mark 9:30–37

<sup>30</sup> They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he did not want anyone to know, <sup>31</sup> for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And when he is killed, after three days he will rise." <sup>32</sup> But they did not understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

<sup>33</sup> And they came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?" <sup>34</sup> But they kept silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. <sup>35</sup> And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all." <sup>36</sup> And he took a child and put him in the midst of them, and taking him in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup> "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me."

Benediction: May He Who has revealed to every nation His everlasting righteousness, Who sits enthroned in ageless splendor, Rule in your hearts since as members of one body you were called to peace. Colossians 3:15
