Looking Ahead

Q. 70. What is justification?

A. Justification is the act of God’s free grace to sinners, by which he pardons all their sins and accepts and looks on them as if they were righteous, not because of anything worked in them or done by them but because God imputes to them the perfect obedience and full satisfaction of Christ that can only be appropriated by faith.

Q. 71. How is justification an act of God’s free grace?

A. By his obedience and death Christ made the correct, real, and full satisfaction to God’s justice on behalf of those who are justified. Yet, insofar as this satisfaction is accepted by God as a guarantee of performance, which he might have demanded from the justified, and since God himself provided a guarantor in the person of his only Son, in justification God imputes righteousness to the justified and requires nothing from them in return except faith, which they also have as a gift from him. Consequently, justification comes to the justified as an act of God’s free grace.
