

Hopewell Worship Guide for 10/10/21

Call to Worship Psalm 64:10 Let the righteous one rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart exult!

Invocation: Let us now lift up our hearts, with our eyes and hands, to God in heaven. Let us rouse ourselves to take hold of God, to seek his face, and to ascribe to him the glory due his name. Unto you, O Lord, do we lift up our souls. Let us now with confidence enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh. Let us now attend to the Lord with undivided devotion, and let not our hearts be far from him when we draw near to him with our mouths and honor him with our lips. Let us now worship God, who is spirit, in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people to worship him. Amen

Old Testament Psalm 139 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. <sup>1</sup> O Lord, you have searched me and known me! <sup>2</sup> You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar. <sup>3</sup> You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways. <sup>4</sup> Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O Lord, you know it altogether. <sup>5</sup> You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me. <sup>6</sup> Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it. <sup>7</sup> Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? <sup>8</sup> If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! <sup>9</sup> If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, <sup>10</sup> even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me. <sup>11</sup> If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light about me be night," <sup>12</sup> even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you. <sup>13</sup> For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. <sup>14</sup> I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. <sup>15</sup> My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth. <sup>16</sup> Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them. <sup>17</sup> How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them! <sup>18</sup> If I would count them, they are more than the sand. I awake, and I am still with you. <sup>19</sup> Oh that you would slay the wicked, O God! O men of blood, depart from me! <sup>20</sup> They speak against you with malicious intent; your enemies take your name in vain. <sup>21</sup> Do I not hate those who hate you, O Lord? And do I not loathe those who rise up against you? <sup>22</sup> I hate them with complete hatred; I count them my enemies. <sup>23</sup> Search me, O God, and know my heart!

Try me and know my thoughts! <sup>24</sup> And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!

Adoration: We do not present our plea before you because of our righteousness, for we are before you in our guilt, and cannot stand before you because of it; but we make mention of Christ's righteousness, even of his only, who is the LORD our righteousness. We know that even spiritual sacrifices are acceptable to God only through Christ Jesus, nor can we hope to receive anything but what we ask of you in his name; and therefore, bless us in the Beloved, that other angel who put much incense to the prayers of the saints and offers them up on the golden altar before the throne. We come in the name of the great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, who is able to sympathize with our weaknesses, and is therefore able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. Behold, O God, our shield, and look on the face of your Anointed, in whom you have by a voice from heaven declared yourself to be well pleased; Lord, be well pleased with us in him

Confession: Lord, we repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand, to which you have exalted your Son, Christ Jesus, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins. We have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now our eyes see you; therefore we despise ourselves, and repent in dust and ashes; therefore will we be like doves of the valleys, each one moaning over his iniquities. O that our heads were waters, and our eyes fountains of tears, that we might weep day and night for our transgressions, and might in such a manner sow in those tears as that at last we may reap in shouts of joy; may now go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, and may in due time come home with shouts of joy, bringing in our sheaves with us. Our iniquities have gone over our heads; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for us; but weary and heavy laden under this burden, we come to Christ, who has promised that in him we shall find rest for our souls. O knowing the affliction of our own hearts, may we look on him whom we have pierced, and may we mourn and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn. That we may grieve after a godly sort, with that grief which produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret; and that we may remember and be confounded, and never open our mouths again because of our shame, when you have atoned for us for all that we have done. And, O that we may bear fruit in keeping with repentance! and may never again turn back to folly; for what have we to do anymore with idols? For sin will have no dominion over us, since we are not under law but under grace. We have gone astray like lost sheep; seek your servants, for we do not forget your commandments.

Petition: Lord, you have told us that godliness holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come; and that if we seek first the kingdom of God and its righteousness, other things will be added to us; and therefore, we cast all our anxieties about these things on you, who cares for us; for our heavenly Father knows that we need them all. You, Lord, are our refuge and our fortress, and under your wings will we find refuge; your faithfulness is a shield and buckler; let us therefore not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day. Having made the Lord our refuge and the Most High our dwelling place, let no evil befall us nor any plague come near our tent. Let the LORD be our keeper, even he who keeps Israel and neither slumbers nor sleeps. Let the Lord be our shade on our right hand, that the sun may not strike us by day, nor the moon by night. Let the Lord keep us from all evil; the Lord keep our life; the Lord keep our going out and our coming in, from this time forth and forevermore. Lord, put a hedge around us and our houses and all that we have on every side; and take sickness away from us.

Thanks: We have feasted on the abundance of your house, and you have given us drink from the river of your delights: for with you is the fountain of life; in your light do we see light. You have brought us to your holy mountain, and made us joyful in your house of prayer; and we have found for us it is good to be near God. We have reason to say that a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere, and that it is better to be a doorkeeper in the house of our God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness; for the LORD God is a sun and shield; he bestows favor and honor, and no good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly: O LORD of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you! We have sat down under your shadow with delight, and your fruit has been sweet to our taste; you have brought us to the banqueting house, and your banner over us has been love. Song of Solomon

Intercession: Lord, keep those who are rich in this present age from being haughty and setting their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, and give them to trust in God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy: That they may do good and be rich in good works, generous and ready to share; that they may store up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future. Though it is hard for those who are rich to enter into the kingdom of heaven, yet with you this is possible. Lord, make those who are poor in the world rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, and give to them to receive the gospel. O that the poor of the flock may wait upon you and may know the word of the LORD. Many are the afflictions of the righteous; good Lord, deliver them out of them all. And though for the moment all affliction seems painful rather than pleasant; nevertheless, later let it yield the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. Lord, give us to love our enemies, to bless those who curse us, and to pray for those who despitefully use us and persecute us. Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do; and do not hold their malice against them; and work in us a disposition to bear with others and forgive in love, as you require we should whenever we pray. And grant that our ways may so please the LORD, that even our enemies may be at peace with us. Let the wolf dwell with the lamb, and let there be none to hurt or destroy in all your holy mountain; let Ephraim not be jealous of Judah, nor Judah harass Ephraim. And we wish for all those whom we love in truth, that all may go well with them and that they may be in good health; we especially pray that it may go well with their souls. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with their spirits.

Lord’s Prayer: Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

Assurance of Pardon: Romans 5:1-2

“Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.”

New Testament Reading: Hebrews 2:10–18 (ESV)<sup>10</sup> For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. <sup>11</sup> For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, <sup>12</sup> saying, “I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise.” <sup>13</sup> And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Behold, I and the children God has given me.” <sup>14</sup> Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>15</sup> and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. <sup>16</sup> For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. <sup>17</sup> Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup> For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Benediction: Now may the God who works wonders, Who has made His strength known among His people, and by His power redeemed them, May He be your joy and delight in you always. Psalm 77, 14, 15, Luke 1:14
