Call to Worship

Revelation 5:9–10

“And they sang a new song, saying, “Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth.”

Invocation: Let us pray: Psalm 19:7–14 (ESV)⁷ The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple; ⁸ the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes; ⁹ the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the rules of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether. ¹⁰ More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. ¹¹ Moreover, by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward. ¹² Who can discern his errors? Declare me innocent from hidden faults. ¹³ Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me! Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. ¹⁴ Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer.

It is to you O God Almighty, that all praise is due - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. One God, now and forever more. Amen.

Old Testament Isaiah 12:1–6

12 You will say in that day: “I will give thanks to you, O Lord, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. ² “Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the Lord God is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.” ³ With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. ⁴ And you will say in that day: “Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted. ⁵ “Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously; let this be made known in all the earth. ⁶ Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.”

Adoration: Lord, we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but let your Spirit help us in our weakness and intercede for us. O pour upon us a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy the Spirit of adoption teaching us to cry, “Abba, Father”; that we may find in our hearts to pray this prayer: Send out your light and your truth; let them lead us, let them bring us to your holy hill and to your dwelling; to God, our exceeding joy. O Lord, open our lips, and our mouths will declare your praise. This is what you, O LORD, have said: that you will be sanctified among those who are near you, and before all the people you will be glorified. We therefore worship before you, O Lord, that we may glorify your name; and therefore we call upon you, that you may deliver us, and we may glorify you. For from you and through you and to you are all things.

Confession: O the riches of the patience and forbearance of God! How patient he is toward us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. You have not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us according to our iniquities, but you wait to be gracious to us. Sentence against our evil deeds has not been executed speedily, but you have given us time to repent and make our peace with you, and call even faithless sons to return to you, and have promised to heal our faithlessness; and therefore, behold, we come to you, for you are the LORD our God. Surely the patience of our Lord is counted as salvation; and if the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not now have shown us such things as these. And O that this kindness of God might lead us to repentance! For though we have broken faith with our God, yet now there is hope for us in Israel in spite of this. You have said it and have confirmed it with an oath, that you have no pleasure in the death of sinners, but rather desire that we should turn and live. Therefore will we rend our hearts, and not our garments, and return to the LORD our God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him?

Petition: Lord, qualify us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light; let God himself prepare us for this very thing, and give us the Spirit as a guarantee in our hearts. O that we may know that our citizenship is in heaven, and that from there, with comfort, we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus, who shall transform our lowly bodies to be like his glorious body. O that we may set our minds on things that are above, and that our life may be hidden with Christ in God; that when Christ, who is our life, shall appear, we also may appear with him in glory; that when he shall appear, we may be like him, may see him as he is, may behold his face in righteousness, and when we awake, may be satisfied with his likeness. When we fail, let us be received into the eternal dwellings, in the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God; that we may always be together with the Lord, to see as we are seen and know as we have been fully known; and, in the meantime, help us to encourage ourselves and one another with these words. And hoping in Christ, may we purify ourselves as he is pure. And now, may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort our hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

Thanks: We have feasted on the abundance of your house, and you have given us drink from the river of your delights: for with you is the fountain of life; in your light do we see light. You have brought us to your holy mountain, and made us joyful in your house of prayer; and we have found for us it is good to be near God. We have reason to say that a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere, and that it is better to be a doorkeeper in the house of our God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness; for the LORD God is a sun and shield; he bestows favor and honor, and no good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly: O LORD of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you! We have sat down under your shadow with delight, and your fruit has been sweet to our taste; you have brought us to the banqueting house, and your banner over us has been love

Intercession: Give grace to all the subjects of this land, that they may, under the government God has set over us, lead peaceful and quiet lives, godly and dignified in every way, dwelling together in unity, that the Lord may command a blessing upon us, even life forevermore. Let everyone of every denomination who fears God and works righteousness, be acceptable to him; yes, let such as love your salvation say continually, "Great is the LORD, who delights in the welfare of his servants."

Lord's Prayer: Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

Assurance of Pardon: 1 Corinthians 15:20-21

"For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive."

New Testament Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:18–25

¹⁸ For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

²⁰ Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹ For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. ²² For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, ²³ but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, ²⁴ but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Benediction:

The God who sent His Son to save, from guilt and darkness and the grave, be gracious to you and bless you and cause His fact to shine upon you. (Ps 67:1, Give to God our Immortal Praise)
